

UPSKILL OR RESKILL. CHANGE YOUR PATH

Boost your chances of making a career change with one of our three learning paths

We're experts in supporting organisations in creating high-performance cultures through Agile adoption.

At the heart of successful adoption are three key roles currently in high demand – Product Owner, Scrum Master and Agile Coach.

Our three learning paths address this demand, each comprising two professional Agile courses.

Recently made redundant?

An additional discount is available if you're reskilling because of a recent redundancy (since 1 March 2020). To take advantage of this, email education@assurity.co.nz

This offer is valid for the course options above scheduled before 31 December 2020. It applies only to face-to-face courses and not the online versions of the courses. You must have booked and paid for both courses before your first course starts or the discount will be null and void.
